WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Death of Daniel Johnson and John Archer, Old and Well-known Residents of This Vicinity.

Daniel Johnson, an aged and respected resident of this side, died yesterday at the Lackawanna hospital. The deceased was 82 years of age and was born in this country. He lived at 146 South Van Buren avenue, but an attack of erysipitis compelled him to enter the hospital, where he died. He was married and was survived by several children. The funeral will occur Tuesday. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

Remove the flinger. A piece of enterprise which will surely prove effective is the placing of starting lithographs all over the city, settling the need of a viaduct on West Lackawanna avenue and telling of the insignificant cost to each voter that will result if the improvement is made. "Remove the Danger" is the catchy headline. Then comes a concise statement of the needs of the viaduct, followed by the cost to each class of citizens. Two cents will be the cost to the laborer and three cents to the miner or mechanic. Property owners will pay from 15 to 40 cents per year. With these figures staring the voter in the face the vote will undoubtedly be favorable to the viaduct.

News Notes and Personals. There is a bad spot in the sidewalk in front of the Barrowman property on West Lackawanna avenue that requires remedy. A loose flagstone constantly trips pedestrians. Several accidents of more or less severity have happened there. The stone is at the top of the hill. Daniel J. Davis spoke at Saturday night's meeting of the Welsh Philological society on the subject, "Which Has Done the Greater Service to Truth, Philosophy or Poetry?" It was an interesting effort. Gwilym Davis, of Utica, leaves for home today, after a visit to West Side relatives. Under the leadership of Prof. Lewis Davis the Jackson street choir is being well drilled. The sacred music given yesterday pleased the several large audiences. The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society will install officers this evening. An interesting programme will be carried out. The Venezuelan question will receive attention. An apron social will be held this evening in the First Welsh congregational church. The Ladies' Aid society will manage the affair. In Saturday's Tribune it was given out that A. W. Bellas, of Green Ridge, had purchased the undertaking business of B. J. Neville. This is not true. Mr. Bellas is manager of the establishment and Mr. Neville still continues as owner. Mr. Bellas resides in the Masonic building, where the establishment is located.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

A surprise party was given to Miss Parsons, of South Main avenue, last Friday evening. Beginning with today John Moore, formerly of the Sunday Free Press, will take charge of the West Side department of the Scranton Times. Alfred Twining will step higher. He has been made associate editor of the Times. Mr. Moore has a remarkable faculty for gathering news and his success is certain.

NORTH END.

Mrs. Humphreys, of Wayne avenue, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Conner, of Binghamton, N. Y. The death of Alfred Wetman, of this end, Mrs. James, formerly of this end, but now of Avoca, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Cella Davis and daughter, Miss Rachel, of Binghamton, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. David Thomas, on Wayne avenue. Mrs. Mary Lloyd is slightly indisposed at her home on Rockwell street. The death of Alfred Wetman occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home near the British mine. He is survived by a son, Samuel, residing at 102 South Main street, and a daughter, Mrs. David Thomas, on Wayne avenue. Mrs. Mary Lloyd is slightly indisposed at her home on Rockwell street. The death of Alfred Wetman occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home near the British mine. He is survived by a son, Samuel, residing at 102 South Main street, and a daughter, Mrs. David Thomas, on Wayne avenue. Mrs. Mary Lloyd is slightly indisposed at her home on Rockwell street. He is survived by a son, Samuel, residing at 102 South Main street, and a daughter, Mrs. David Thomas, on Wayne avenue.

Forest Band Organizes. A meeting of the members of the Forest band was held yesterday afternoon at the rooms and after mapping out a programme of active preparations to place the organization on a permanent basis and make it a leader in its line, the following officers were elected: President, M. J. Cusick; vice president, T. J. Brown; secretary, James Mangano; treasurer, Richard J. O'Donnell; leader, B. E. Byron. They will run an entertainment after Lent.

Butcher Fred Hug's Enterprise. The information was given out last week that Butcher Fred Hug, of Pittston avenue, had purchased the property of James H. Dempsey, at the corner of East Market street and Sanderson avenue.

Shorter Paragraphs of News. This evening the ball for the benefit of Mrs. Martin Kearney, of Fig street, will be held at Workingmen's hall. It is expected to be well patronized and, no doubt, will. Henry J. Wetter and Miss Maud List, both of Cedar avenue, will be married at 81 St. Mary's church tomorrow. They are a popular young couple. Rev. Mr. Schlegel, of New York city, preached at the Episcopal church yesterday at the Evangelical Church of Peace on Prospect avenue. Miss Lena Hartman led the gospel meeting at the Episcopal church, the South Side Young Women's Christian Association rooms. Her subject was "Sacrifice."

Forest City. Friday, Cecil, son of T. C. Manzer, met with a very painful accident and one that will confine him to the house for some time. Cecil, while sitting with a companion he caught his foot and striking his shoulder against the jamb of the door and breaking his collar bone. Lillian, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Macey, died on Friday morning of membranous croup, after an illness of about a week. She was a very bright and lovable child and he bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. G. B. Stone at the house this (Monday) morning at 10 o'clock, and interment will be in the new cemetery at Carbondale. Sheriff E. A. Leonard, of Montrose, was a visitor in town the latter part of last week. It is probable that Colonel L. F. Copeland, of Harrisburg, will deliver a lecture in the Forest City Opera House some time in March under the auspices of the Enterprise Hose company. Revival services will continue this week in the Methodist Episcopal church. Great interest is being manifested and many have professed conversion.

SECOND TRIAL OF ROSA

Will Begin Today Before Judge Edwards in Criminal Court. HE MURDERED VITO LORUSSA Was Convicted of Murder in the First Degree on the First Trial—Rendham Burglars Found Guilty—Sentences Imposed on Saturday.

The second week of criminal court will begin today, and the first case on the list is the second trial of Murderer Leonardo Rosa, who was convicted on the first trial for slaying Vito Lorusa at Dunmore on the morning of Feb. 23, 1895. The defendant was granted a new trial upon the fact brought out at the argument that Detective Frank Agli admitted he had not told everything Rosa confessed to him in the jail. The trial beginning today will be before Judge Edwards.

The commonwealth hopes to be able to make out a stronger case against the defendant this time. When Lorusa's witness stand that morning of the murder, the scissor was stuck up the sleeve of the dead man's coat. This would go toward dispelling the assumption that the murder was in self-defense; on the contrary, it would show it is contended, that Rosa took the scissor from Lorusa's pocket after killing and placing where it was found to prove that an attack had been made and that the murder was simply repelling that attack. At the first trial District Attorney John R. Jones and his law partner, Attorney V. Powderly, represented the commonwealth, and Attorneys George S. Horn, James J. H. Hamilton and John G. McCann represented the defendant. Van Dyke and Others Found Guilty. W. J. Van Dyke, John Moran and Elias Thomas were found guilty of burglarizing the Methodist Episcopal church at Dunmore on the morning of Aug. 21 last, and binding the pastor, Rev. W. R. Cochrane, and his wife with a rope, after which the burglars ransacked the house. John and Anthony Ghins, two young fellows, who were charged with being implicated in the outrage, were returned not guilty at the first trial upon the instruction of the court. At that trial the jury could not agree on the guilt of the other defendants and the case had to be tried a second time. Attorneys L. H. Burns, M. J. Donohue and A. Chas. who represented the defendants, will apply to the court for a new trial on the ground that the evidence did not warrant a conviction. Moran's father and three sisters told straightforward stories in testifying that he was at home on the night of the burglary.

Edward Lynn was convicted of assault and battery on his wife and the court sentenced him to spend six months in the county jail. He is the man whose child was buried in the fire in the home on the South Side a few months ago. James Golden was acquitted of assault and battery on Edward Jones, of Dunmore, the costs were equally divided. The defendant struck Jones because the latter said Mrs. Golden deviated from the truth. Michael Knicker was found guilty of assault and battery on Sammy Miller, of Scranton street, and the jury directed the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Some Sentences Imposed. William Lynch, of the South Side, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail for assault and battery on John Jacob Schmidt. William Thornton will spend a month in jail for breaking six glass panes in the window of the home of John T. Gibbons, of Taylor borough. Thornton's 4-year-old stepson was burned so fearfully a month ago that he died a day or so afterward. The fellow was playing near a fire in a field near his home and his clothes caught from the flames. Fred Neff, of Cedar avenue, who was hurt last week in the accident where the safe crashed through the sidewalk is recovering rapidly. Thomas F. Dougherty and James J. O'Connor have formed a partnership in the wholesale liquor business and their store will be at the corner of Fig street and Pittston avenue, in the part now occupied by the grocery store.

Forest City. Friday, Cecil, son of T. C. Manzer, met with a very painful accident and one that will confine him to the house for some time. Cecil, while sitting with a companion he caught his foot and striking his shoulder against the jamb of the door and breaking his collar bone. Lillian, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Macey, died on Friday morning of membranous croup, after an illness of about a week. She was a very bright and lovable child and he bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. G. B. Stone at the house this (Monday) morning at 10 o'clock, and interment will be in the new cemetery at Carbondale. Sheriff E. A. Leonard, of Montrose, was a visitor in town the latter part of last week. It is probable that Colonel L. F. Copeland, of Harrisburg, will deliver a lecture in the Forest City Opera House some time in March under the auspices of the Enterprise Hose company. Revival services will continue this week in the Methodist Episcopal church. Great interest is being manifested and many have professed conversion.

PROCLAMATION.

Mayor's Office, City of Scranton, Pa. In compliance with Law and the Ordinance of the City of Scranton, W. J. Connel, Mayor of said City, do hereby give notice that an election will be held at the places of holding the Municipal Elections in said City, on Tuesday, the Eighteenth day of February, 1896, for the purpose of obtaining the assent of the electors of said City to an increase of Bonds in the amount of $100,000.00, for the purpose of procuring land for and constructing a Viaduct parallel with West Lackawanna avenue from Seventh street to Ninth street, as provided in Ordinance of said City, File of Select Council, No. 47, 1895, entitled: "An Ordinance Providing for Increasing the City Debt for the Purpose of Procuring Land for and Constructing a Viaduct Parallel with West Lackawanna Avenue from Seventh Street to Ninth Street and Submitting the Question of Such Increase to a Vote of the Electors Thereof" approved January 17th, 1895. As required by law the following information is given to electors: First—The amount of the last assessed valuation of taxable property in said City is $18,597,764.00. Second—The amount of the existing debt of said City is $1,000,000.00. Third—The amount of the proposed increase of debt is $100,000.00. Fourth—The proposed increase of debt is 0.0069 per cent. of the City's valuation 1895, exclusive of occupations. Fifth—The purpose for which the indebtedness is to be incurred are hereinbefore stated. An annexed hereto is the City Controller's official statement of Indebtedness and Resources of the City, also copy of City Ordinance. Witness by hand and the Seal of the City of Scranton this 17th day of January, A. D. 1896. (Seal of City) W. L. Connel, Mayor.

FILE OF SELECT COUNCIL, NO. 47, 1895. AN ORDINANCE Providing for Increasing the City Debt for the Purpose of Procuring Land for and Constructing a Viaduct Parallel with West Lackawanna Avenue from Seventh Street to Ninth Street, and Submitting the Question of Such Increase to a Vote of the Electors Thereof. Section 1.—Be it ordained by the Select and Common Council of the City of Scranton, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That for the purpose of constructing a viaduct parallel with the southerly side of and contiguous to West Lackawanna Avenue, from Seventh Street to Ninth Street, and for the purpose of procuring land to be taken, injured or destroyed in connection with the construction of the viaduct, the City of Scranton do hereby issue of City Bonds in the amount of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, in hereby authorized to issue, and to sell, to the consent of the electors of the City of Scranton as herein provided.

Section 2.—The question of assenting to the above proposed increase of the City Debt shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the City of Scranton at the next ensuing general election occurring not less than thirty days after the passage of this ordinance. Section 3.—After the passage of this ordinance, and at least thirty days before said election, the Mayor shall publish in three daily newspapers of the City, and the statement required by law, and the notices shall be furnished by the City Controller. Approved January 17, 1896. OFFICE OF CITY CONTROLLER. Scranton, Pa., January 18, 1896.
